

Freedom of Movement AKA Me Trying to Pass the Buck on Asylum

I'm for the freedom of movement of everyone. I want people to come and go at will. indeed article 13 of the united nations declaration of human rights says:

1) Everyone has the right to freedom of movement and residence within the borders of each state.

(2) Everyone has the right to leave any country, including his own, and to return to his country.

but if you walk into the royal courts of justice, you will hear case after case of asylum law. As the secretary of state argues for another person to be chucked out again.

so what if he's going to get murdered in his own nation? So what if he's supposedly committed a crime? So what if they have family here? This is the uk border agency speaking and they don't care. Your out - only not really - as it takes years to fight a battle out, as you go through the court of appeal, the uk supreme court, and perhaps if you have enough money and intelligence Strasbourg as well, and only then will you win. As they rule it ultra vires under article 8 (the intelligence test!)

Britain hate losers and has no respect for anyone at all. no money, wrong skin colour, wrong political party! your out. as your guilty till proven innocent here. which is why we need Europe, to safeguard our rights as the British people can't be trusted at all as words are humpty dumpty and mean what ever you need them to mean, when it comes to arguing political agenda and all. there is no such thing as a fair trial in Britain today and to make it worse the political parties are fighting to vote even more rights out, to take our safeguards away on the pretext that they parliament, can be trusted again!

I'm a British citizen, I am unable to pay my way. my family go back generations, my business brings nothing in, and am defaulting on my mortgages with no support, and they say I'm entitled to no benefit at all

So I am a little bemused and annoyed at all these reports at how immigrants are being paid off, while I get nothing at all. true I may get something now my other house is empty, but I want nothing at all. As I would rather die then humour Britain/legitimise that government at all. as they testified in court that I wasn't entitled to benefit because I was receiving money in rent. £425 a month and my mortgages are more then that! this is the only income I've had for over 2 years now. which is all that's feeding me/running my site. While I defend litigation against none payment of council tax, as the banks trying to reposses everything I own. as the British computer society rubs salt in the wounds and excises me of "bringing my profession into disrepute! for trying to advertise www.thesextree.co.uk which they say is a sex site and my life! so yeah screw Britain, and screw their law, they have no respect for anyone at all.

In fact the more I stay here, the more I despise them, racists, and bigots every one as they try and impose their belief set on everyone/take their freedom away. I hate them all.

As I look at the Romanians in expensive jeans playing on the side of the street (good music as well) and well making money here. Good for them! Perhaps I should have learnt an instrument instead of I.T? at least they give something back, which is more than the politicians ever will.

My only issue is who gets what money at all. By all means come into the country, and bring your cash as well, but how does our benefit system work and who gets paid? (I don't get anything from it) and why are they spending so much time in the courts, trying to throw people out? as not one of the parties seem to clarify where they stand on immigration.

I'm a witch, and with this government. I don't feel welcome at all, even since the government illegally broke into my house without a warrant for trying to teach psychic development online.

Bemusing to watch other people trying to get into this nation at all. However saying that, I know it could be worse. as while I suffered an illegal break in/detention at the hands of Christians panic reacting to the occult. I didn't actually get burnt at the stake. I just got detained and prevented from making bank transfers which was an attempt to starve me out/bankrupt my business, as I receive bank charges instead. which is a par of the British people, trying to destroy everything you ever worked for, cared about. share knowledge! never this is Britain and anyone who does will be persecuted and burnt. (metaphorically speaking) as I try and find an upside for living here.

At least I'm not dead! how dare I whinge. I should be grateful for being screwed over by government and the system at large! as the vultures flock trying to destroy my home, my business. to profit on my fall. as they try and declare me mentally unwell, for proving them wrong! which is a very British solution, to anyone who would argue against the party line, or for freedom at all!

No freedom here! they have forgotten the law, and parliament rules instead. as the Durham "mutaween" police force break in illegally again. so much for compensation, an apology your unwell, your weak, we can do what you want to you, as there is no justice here, in Britain today. you need to be a lord for that!

the right to come and go anywhere in the world, to be treated with respect, to be allowed to speak my mind, share what I know, without persecution or regret. alas Sir Yoric - free speech is dead! They will come and lock you up here, now! as witches aren't welcome in Durham

I should be free to make my own decisions in life, and I shouldn't have to endure government and religion trying to impose its belief set on me. I hate Britain and everything it stands for at times. It has one of the most corrupt justice systems in the world, and its getting worse. as they only care for themselves, their expenses and their pay check. which is why they will chuck you out in the end!

Your face didn't fit. Your black! your white, your Christian your dead! not that the later one would bother me at all - it was your kind which got me into this mess and I crave a world free of your stupidity, your ignorance and your crimes.

arse I'm just as bad as you now, a minority which would show its teeth in vengeance the first chance I got, if power swung the other way. burn the Christian, burn the jew, burn all gods people, and hope they die! perhaps not the jews, they suffered enough already, and in truth it was only Christians this time round.

What for? because power corrupts and they screwed me over? and well I want vengeance for all those other witches dead, burnt and buried at their hands. - resentment mounts in time, especially when you feel you can't speak openly anymore.

perhaps I should try and move past that, ignore their crimes perhaps as the system fobs me off, as its never reported on the news, perhaps it was a one off, and will never happen again. and yet its never the same, as I can say I will never trust government, the police, the council, the system of justice again. I can't I've seen how it works, the corruption reeks, and the people don't care, as the "majority" is oblivious to it all. and its not official news, and you suffer in silence, because you know its happening elsewhere, and people are dying for it!

11 witches massacred in Kenya! witches beaten in india, more dead in Nigeria, south Africa as the fear of the devil grows, and what am I supposed to do about it

Nothing, no place to go, as not even Britain is safe anymore, and I thought it was once! ignorance is bliss, and then you learn the truth, and realise no matter where you go in the world, the people are the same and the only thing that matters is how educated they are. as that's the only control to stupidity at all.

Britain isn't educated! I thought it was once, and I rejoiced in my western teachers slugging off eastern philosophy, and other ideas. only to find out for myself when I researched them, that they actually knew more in part. and that Britain was dumb. the problem is if you try and share your research and speak openly for it. your shouted down, beaten up, and persecuted and I'm sure its only a matter of time, before its taken to the next level as well. as no one argues freedom anymore.

Its all you must be insane/mentally ill for questioning the facts/going against the government line. The British cure for political dissent. Lock them up, and hope no one notices at all Its bi polar/schitzoprina or some other fictional ill. Anything to get their land, their business, and their property as well... and that's just the people who have lived here all their life.

So what happens to people looking for a better life from abroad? Those who come across with no money, no home? Do we give up our homes, and spend all our time looking after them? or do we go enough is enough, Britain is full? can we let them in, and trust they will make money, contribute to the whole, and if so what happens if they don't find their feet?

too many homeless people equals crime. if we don't support people, they will have no choice to go into people to live. would you really let your two year old starve? your family? would you mug someone instead? rob a bank. so they can live. is that what we've been driven to here?

which is perhaps why we have the benefit system to begin with?

Only they don't pay it to everyone here . If you ever make money you wont qualify at all, as they hate anyone who tries and run a business here. they prefer slaves. and would rather see you bankrupt and penniless. so they can be generous and force you to work for nothing, the lord shall rule, and you shall serve. and anyone who would rise up. shall die!

Really its true! -Try being a witch for a day, and see how it feels as social services mess your life up again.

The Devils Views...

The benefit system, Our “safety net” which deliberately misses people out and is the reason why we’re broke. people have no incentive to do anything anymore, as the moment you try and do anything – speak up – is the moment your screwed over by anyone in power.

Perhaps Europe will be better! they support human rights there. Strasburg and the new charter of fundamental rights which Britain doesn’t want to sign up to as they screw you over some more.

Hell most of the parties seem to want to tear up the existing convention and pull out altogether, so they can persecute people some more. independent thought isn’t respected, isn’t welcome as they are trying to stamp it out, and that’s a shame, as Britain used to be good once. Perhaps it wasn’t so, as I’m sure Churchill wanted the Strasburg courts, and I’m sure they wanted freedom, and yet this Britain doesn’t, and I for one no longer recognise their justice system as competent or fair. as no government has the authority to take freedom away. you can’t tare up the bill of rights, the magna carta and go its ok. we replaced it! we’re parliament we can hold you without trial, and declare you “ill” they are the law, and the people are stupid as hell!

Not one of them has the backbone to rise up and defend freedom again! as anyone who doe will be taken down silently in the day! and no one will care, or say anything at all, because this is Britain and really they are that dumb - as they soak up the political propaganda of the BBC.

[slag off other nations, just not your own]

Which inter alia is why I hate my own people, and if I had a choice I would perhaps choose Prague instead, at least they have a sense of humour there, most of the European nations don’t!

but is there any jobs? and is it expensive to live? I need broadband to run my site. and will anyone be interested in joining from there? and what of Russia. some of those Russians look hot (and thin) perhaps they would be up for it? or am I reaching now, currently I have no transport, and well Durham is my reach shudder Perhaps I’m just lazy with language and my French isn’t up to it -As I make my excuses at why I put up with it!) Though my French Ex did leave French much for the same reason cited above. she hated the French people/government and went to Ireland instead.

I in turn seduced her, and she came to live here in Britain with me. This perhaps isn’t helping me win votes/asylum at all. As our numbers go up by one! Though not to worry. one year with me, and she moved out. As lets face it you can’t live with the British at all! (or is that just me?) and yes shes living on her own somewhere, or with another bloke (no idea she won’t speak to me) and is bringing more money into this country then me!

Yes that’s right, she actually still in a high paying job, and one which involves having to go to other countries across the world, and so is actually making money for once. she French, I’m British and not making anything at all and am not entitled to anything at all. so she will inherit my land, and everything lets left, just to spite the lot! as I would rather her (the French got it) then anyone in Britain at all.

How dare I do that! but I have no support from my own people, and everything they have ever done/taught me has set me back years. Yes really they are that crap at school! and their Christianity sets you back more! as I try and renounce my “British heritage” (or go back even further - to my Celtic roots) in order to make a better life again.

and while I try and develop an international site, in the vain hope that someone will give me money from abroad. (I’ve give up on Britain) its going to be slow. as I’m under siege from Britain, and well stupidity reigns here. and my time is short. and well they will probably just starve me to death rather than giving me benefit at all - wait till I’m dead - bastardise my work, and say he was great – after I’m dead – because that’s the British way and you can’t have anyone doing anything, while alive!

www.thesextree.co.uk not british at all!

As another high court judges starts ranting again, about Jamaicans only coming over here for benefit? What benefit? there is no fking benefit, as no one gives you anything at all! which is perhaps why I’m confused. do only Christians get benefit over here? [In Durham!]

Or do you have to be made bankrupt, loose your home, and your business before your given any help at all? in fact they actively try and destroy it! just exactly how much of a loss do you need to make, before you get support? as defaulting on payments clearly isn’t enough.

or do I have to loose my house? and everything I’ve done, before I get any respect at all! In which case I choose death, as I would rather die then surrender to you.

I’m ~~British~~ European- I probably missed the point, and should have brought in prague or Bulgaria when I had the chance! Too expensive (or so I thought)

The Devils Views...

Now I am trapped in a "Christian nation" full of pig headed racists who are just dying to persecute anyone who thinks for themselves.

Greed and hypocrisy won and yet a lot of people are still trying to come here to live? Why... Admittedly the ladies might want to take a shot at me [I'm still single!!!], but the blokes? come on - ok the blokes might be as well - but really I'm a one women man, at least when I'm single and/or they agree otherwise. not gay at all!

where to live

Try Israel! the chicks are hot there! or is that just the expats (over here), or try china instead. I love the Chinese women, they are so sweet, but their working hours suck! not that that really matters when your trying to run your own company, as it's a 24-7 affair.. hang on, if I'm trying to run my own company, perhaps I'm better off there? what with all that investment and those cool new sky scrapers and all? as you won't get any help here at all! unless you do nothing of course.

America? would just bug the crap out of me, as they have no concept of human rights with gutanamo bay and all, and from what I hear their Christians are worse.

Russia! now there's a nation with prospects, so much land with no civilisation, and yet... I think their humour is wasted on me, as I compare my naked physique, with Putins and go, perhaps my body isn't the right build for those chicks. Though they do play chess. and appear to take the psychic side seriously. Perhaps I sell my research to them instead! if ever I get anything good.

Yet I crave civilisation, and an easy How full is Britain again. Population growth is 0.3% a year, but really anyone with cash [or a brain] is leaving in droves Britain sucks! down under never appealed, unless in 69. but the women seem to like it a lot.

As year in, year out they keep trying to take our rights away and our schooling sucks! you have to go on Wikipedia, and other sources to actually break your religious programming, and lean something new for once. Faraday and Einstein only flourished because they failed the brain washing test, and weren't welcome at all.

So its not the school system people want! and well if you want housing and benefit you might want to try Spain instead. They have some serious ghost towns from what I hear, no one wants to live there at all...

Might be good for a laugh? ok perhaps not spain, but yes. where do you want to live again? we have no houses, here at all!

Actually not strictly true, I have one I am renting out currently. Anyone interested? 3 bed semi. Really I need the cash and get no benefit at all and will starve otherwise.

However they have brought these horrible rules in, which say I have to get it checked before I rent it out, and well I have no money to pay for that! I'm not on benefit. So if I do rent it out, I will be breaking the law, so it stays empty instead. which means I have to pay for it in taxes (I have no money for that either) and why are they doing this? to force me to sell? can't do that - needs money in homey buyer reports, and yes I'm stuck with housing, I'm not allowed to rent out! because government won't pay me anything, and well the banks will try and take it from me! charge me for the repossession and I will be left with nothing at all. which goes my plans, my retirement and my life.

The British dream, vote labour in, and die a slave!

Trust me - you really, don't want to live here at all! certainly not the blokes! The women are hotter elsewhere. That's obviously a subjective opinion and I'm sure the women will hate me for it!but its true, and well some foreigners may love the British women - who is either overweight, stupid and/or carrying kids. and well they aren't very nice at all!

I prefer French myself, you know where you stand with the French bitch, the who tells it to you straight and meet you half way - none of the British chicks do that)! harsh exterior, and soft and vulnerable on the inside. and the language of love, which moves mountains, I feel..

fk it perhaps we just deport the bnp! but that means they would probably deport anyone then. How about we just deport anyone convicted of a crime? wait we did that one already... and well the justice system as it is - they probably didn't do it, as its not innocent till proven guilty anymore and well the guilty get off, and the innocent go down, because they are scared into confessing guilt, in fear of a worse crime.

and well if your black, gees, you'll get the likes of ian trigger going guilty, guilty before you walk into the room. as really there is no such thing as impartiality here. we're british, and words mean what ever we need them to mean. so yeah, your playing paint ball. 18 months, what do you mean, they haven't left yet? as they deport you at the end of your sentence again. why aren't we deporting them at the start? I know we did it in the bad old days, but surely its cheaper to kick them out at the start of the sentence, rather than paying for them to be locked up for how many years it is, or is that time to allow for appeal? oh dear. how many years to get through the court system again?

screw it, you need to know where you stand, or at least where I stand on the issue, as Britain will never be straight with anyone at all.

So here it goes: how I would do it (which incidentally loses votes!) is let anyone in and if they are found being rude, going into people/beating people up. they get kicked out. though this does assume impartiality from the police, and well what with them breaking into peoples homes illegally because of their belief set, and Essex police spraying mace into their faces its perhaps not going to be fair, without a trial, and well British judges such, and arse. we have a problem again.

as while most of the time its obvious where people stand (i.e. who you want chucked out) you do get the expectation to the rule, and what am I arguing again? asylum. arse as I try this again.

No one is entitled to any benefit unless they we're born in Britain. your children only get benefit if one of them is born to a British parent. if you were born in Britain to foreign parents you may gain citizenship if they have paid over 50k? in taxes which entitles you to access to the benefit system. remember I want to change it so everyone who is "british" gets paid something, regardless of if they work or not. which is why you have to meet a prerequisite requirement before you qualify. not that anyone will vote that system in mind, because its me and well I would like to remove the bar from working, without trying to starve people out!

incidentally anyone who does work is penalised, as they would rather bleed you dry, make you destroy your business before they start helping you out, and its gone too far as there is no reward/incentive for working trying to build a company at all. even though its those companies which make money for Britain! so they [British government/people] are a bit stupid like that. which is why I hate Britain. and why I think the smart ones at times, are the ones who never did anything as they are set for life! while people like me starve.

Perhaps I will do that Japanese thing after all. I have failed in my mission to bring money in, I must do the honourable thing and fall on my sword! (I think we should be allowed to carry them publically still) and yes I would rather die then justify this unelected tyrannical regime which adds no value to Britain at all. as our money could be better spent elsewhere, and well this uk border agency is doing my head in. lets get rid of the lot.

Lets fact it the weather sucks here anyway, and lets face it. I would perhaps rather be sleeping on a beach in Jamaica smoking hash, then trying to fight Durham council again as lets fact it I have no sustainable policy at all when it comes to immigration in britian.

I want their to be no restriction, but yes it will probably turn into a war, with riots on the street as the old system is over thrown by the people instead. wait – perhaps that is a better idea. chaos, anarchy freedom, love as the people learn to trust each other for once, as its our world, our planet and this government thing is crap.

who cares about the British government anyway? an unelected majority with no common sense eager to vote our freedom away, because the part whip told them so! hell they don't even know which door is which, half the time.

parliament is not the law, much like the king wasn't all those years ago. Only 16.2% of the people voted the last majority [labour 2005] in, so who gets the vote again? Anyone living here? not really how about if you move to a country anywhere in the world, you get to vote in their elections! as its only like local government, anyway. i.e. if your paying taxes in that country/paying for education there -you get a say!!! as I try and round this policy off, decide where I stand. as I'm getting as bad as the other parties, by not saying anything at all can I just kick the conservatives out? wait we've been there already, I can't kick people out for their belief set, as that's Durham policy here. (I'm not conservative)

Perhaps we need free transport instead? free hostels the world over, so you can actually travel the world with no fixed abode, and get something to eat. explore the world? and research free of restriction, as you come to terms with your spiritual quest, before you fall in love, mate and well find a family in what ever nation you may end up in (hopefully not Britain) and perhaps one day pigs will fly, as no ones open to this at all.

everyone just wants to shut people out, and focus on greed, are they getting paid or not? if not – screw you. that's the mentality here. and the rest of the world as well.

so much for free love, and open relationships. the church ruined it all, and brought bloodshed to the lot. - not really - or perhaps they did - I just wanted another crack at them. what am I arguing again?

The Devils Views...

Je suis European, we are the leaders of the free new expensive world order. and only people with money need apply, as satire is wasted here, I have no poliij other then leaving people be, and well that might backfire given the racism here.

This page is white
it also has black words on it and yellow as I love to mix it up

I'm also trying to buy time/filling up space – and wasting printer ink as well for no other reason, as I can't think of what to say! our policy sucks and soon the space runs out there's too much of it, I've gone over again as this was supposed to be 2 not 6 pages and all. and there is way too much violence in the world as is, and if we were to perhaps somehow stabilise those areas again. Would we have more space, or would that be an excuse for more war. as people perhaps need to feel safe where they live, anywhere in the world and I don't feel safe in Durham. because social services and Durham "Mutaween" police force break in, and yeah... Prague. but this is my home. so why is everyone moving again?

you sure they are moving? really?

I think you exaggerate... as I'm going to defend my land to the death, and if that means another british civil war so be it! as I'm sick of this religious lot.

Parliament is not the law, the many do not rule the one (and you can't even make that) and I will defend freedom in the devils name, to the end. no how many people do I have to kill, to make room for witches here? lets face it – we need a country of our own, and well these Christians are psing me off, and I think its time we make room for people with brains. actually come to think of it, I'm probably going to have fk over the scientists as well, at least the close minded ones, who argue maths instead of reality. which isn't going to go down well, as I am a minority here, and so I give up.

Independence it is. I renounce British sovereignty under article 15, and article 17 of the united nations declaration of rights, and shall form my own state. we pay taxes to no one (we have no money yet) as I try and come up with an asylum policy which works.

as in theory I have a spare room. which means I could take someone in, but I don't like anyone, and its only good if they bring money in (for me) and yes I need a women again. so perhaps I let women in, for sexual favours or is that racist? discriminatory? or does it not work on the small scale. arse this isn't working at all – britian/Europe should have been fun and now its not, as there is no money here! and already I am trying to filter it down, so I can get some work done.

really? someone (female) willing to pose naked, might actually get me some cash! as no one here will do it! actually I will do it, but I won't appeal to everyone, so yes.. some balance required. As I don't have all the skills I need, and yes? do I really need them to live here? to contribute? perhaps email? or something like that.. and if they were going to die? would I really turf them out? (blokes yes!) women no, see you can't trust me at all, and well I can't trust Britain at all, and yes... this entire thing sucks more then you think!

Please Note:

I have not renounced my European citizenship. just Britain as they are crap at this. so am I – but well, at least I don't go around invading nations/breaking into peoples homes illegally, and yes... I hate Britain and everything it is!

so who will stand in the devils name, and help me defend my land, against this fascist dictatorship, this slave labour Britain? and help freedom instead? as there is no room here for any of you here, but I may pay the women in kind (I can't afford money) so my body is all I have left to sell. not much of an offer, but well we're getting desperate here! and yes I suck at this asylum law. I may also need a well/solar panels, as I am depend on Britain for that! which is an arse, as I've just told them to go to hell for crimes against humanity. is there no one in this planet, which will defend freedom at all? one place where people can come and go at will (just not stay – as there is only so much crash room) or could I live, with people sleeping on the floor... hmmm and how long for? may have to have a bounce to chuck people out – if and when they spoil it for the res? and yes can I trust people to play fair? to keep their word, share? and bring money in for once? this isn't doing me any good at all - as I need some peace and quiet to meditate for once. perhaps a police force, to keep the peace.

Off with their heads, as I need some privacy for once? (and money) and yes.... how many rooms does the queen have left? See Britain next door, please. I'm sure her estates are bigger then mind, and arse its back to that old chestnut again. what to do with the people, who have no home. perhaps we should work together and build some for once! preferably those with money footing the bill! As I can't even afford to feed myself here. tick tock... the antichrist died, He quit ahead!.
